

Department of Sociology
Govt. V.Y.T. PG Autonomous College, Durg

Vision

To provide quality oriented teaching and substantial research facilities that will bring out the maximum potentiality of the students.

Mission

- To promote scientific understanding of social life
- To help students apply sociological knowledge on social issues at local, regional and national level

Program Specific Outcomes (U.G.)

PSO 1 - Development the analytical capabilities to examine the relationship between man and Society.

PSO 2 -Resources are crucial for the technological and economic Development of firms in spatial perspective. PSO 3 - Analyzing the unit in the vast cultural background of India.

PSO 4- Understanding the natural characteristics of India.

Course Outcomes of Sociology ( U .G.)

B.A. Part - I

BSL 01 (Introduction to Sociology)

After Competition of This Course Students Will Be Able -

CO 1 - To explain social facts and society relative sociological concepts.

CO 2 - They well able to express empirical observation with sociological concepts. CO 3 - Students well be able to convey the historical development of sociology CO 4 - They Relets the development of sociology to Social change and

CO 5 - Student conveys the latest developments in sociology.

BSL 02 (Contemporary Indian Society)

After Competition of This Course Students Will Be Able -

CO 1 - Every society has its own peculiar structure and there are some institutions universal to every society, butwith their unique manifestations in each society.

CO 2 - This paper Focuses on the structure of the Indian society and the changing aspects with the processesoperating, change agents and initiatives.

CO 3 - Learn about the concept and effects of Dowry, Domestic Violence and Divorce on society. CO 4 - This paper is expected to bring familiarity in a student about Indian society.

CO 5 - It is hoped that the structure and processes Operative in the society, the change agents operating in Indian society presented in this course will also enable students to gain a better understanding of their own situation and region.

B.A. Part - IIBSL

03 (Sociology of Tribal Society)

After Competition of This Course Students Will Be Able -

- CO 1 - Sociology of Tribal is a specialized branch deals with the concept of Tribal, their life style, their problems and Socio culture of tribal peoples.
- CO 2 - The course aims to draw attention mainly to the problems, policies and programme taken for the upliftment of the tribal peoples of Indian society and causes of their backwardness.
- CO 3 - After studying this paper on Sociology of Tribal society a student can understand the concept of Tribe, their characteristics, classification and their socio culture profile.
- CO 4 - Students can understand about kinship, Marriage beliefs and traditions of tribal society.
- CO 5 - In this paper various tribal movements are also been covered, so that a student can Well aware of this also.

BSL 04 (Crime & Society)

After Competition of This Course Students Will Be Able -

- CO 1 - After studying this course able to define to crime, steps and factors that lead from a crime to conviction.
- CO 2 - Illustrate how society views crime with fear and fascination.
- CO 3 - Give examples of the relationship between crime rates and the evidence to support this claims.
- CO 4 - Enhance the logical and analytical skill the understand the social issues and problems.
- CO 5 - As well as deep theoretical and scientific knowledge about the criminology

B.A. Part - III

BSL 05 (Foundation of Sociological Thought)

After Competition of This Course Students Will Be Able -

- CO 1 - After studying this course the students should able to understand concept and theories.
- CO 2 - To understand social phenomenon which is given by various sociological thinkers.
- CO 3 - They will develop an analysis of power to explain
- CO 4 - After studying this course the students should able to understand concept and theories to understandsocial phenomenon which is given by various sociological thinkers.
- CO 5 - They will develop an analysis of power to explain.

BSL 06 (Social Research Method)

After Completion of This Course Students Will Be Able -

CO 1 - After studying this course students should be able to explain Key research concepts and issues. CO 2 - Read comprehend and explain research article and their academic field.

CO 3 - They demonstrate their ability to choose methods appropriate to research aims and objectives.

CO 4 - Understand the limitations of particular research methods and develop advanced critical thinking skills. CO 5 - They will better understand research methodological issues and implementation in the area.

Program Specific Outcomes ( P.G.)

- After studying this course students should be able to explain about our Classical Sociological Tradition.
- To Understand Philosophical & Conceptual Foundation of Research Methodology.
- Student can be able to understand change and their impact on society as a broad sense.
- India is Country of rural people so that student will be able to understand the whole rural society.
- After studying this course student will be able to better understand our industry and their global impact on society.
- Enhance the logical and analytical skill to understand the social issues and problems as well as deep theoretical and scientific knowledge about the criminology.

M.A. SEMESTER I

MSL 101 Classical Sociological Tradition

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

CO 1 - Social events are changing rapidly. Be it the principles of sociology whether it is classical or traditional or modern students, a group is creating a subtle understanding.

CO 2 - They will give students a perspective with self- imagination.

CO 3 - The way scholars like Marx, Weber, Durkheim interpret the transition, it gives the student a new perspective.

CO 4 - All these principles with their originality create a new perspective in the present

CO 5 - Circumstances so that they can prove the meaning of their own participation in the creation of future society.

MSL 102 Philosophical & Conceptual Foundation of Research Methodology

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

CO 1 - Knowledge of research and process including reading, assessment and development is identified.

CO 2 - Students understand the fundamentals of research knowledge in research methodology.

CO 3 - Can understand current events using differences in qualitative and conformational methods.CO 4 - Identifies the role and importance and develops a utilitarian perspective.

CO 5 - A scientific approach to viewing social events develops and understands the difference between real Knowledge and Common sense.

MSL 103 Social Change in India

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - The existence of the any society depends on development and change. Reading the paper gives students a deep and Theoretical identification of universal facts such as Change.
- CO 2 - The rationality of change and Development can be understood as the Behavioral consequences of the students.
- CO 3 - Understanding the plan of the past and the Future strategy can be formulated with the changing nature of society.
- CO 4 - The difference between the theory and behavioral results of its study can be understood also the results of Change can be monitored and evaluated.
- CO 5 - The study of these two major concepts can explain the work-cause relationship and Evaluation of events.

MSL 104 Rural Society in India

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - India is the country having numerous rural areas. This will open a plenty of career paths for the candidates interested in this field.
- CO 2 - It is to provide a holistic perspective of schemes/programmes of central govt. in general and state govt. in particular.
- CO 3 - It is to develop expertise in planning and management of rural development programmes with focus on participatory development.
- CO 4 - Students can join in Rural Development Organizations / Institutions as Social Worker, Community Mobilizer.
- CO 5 - Students can join in State /National Livelihoods Mission under Panchayati Raj Dept / Rural Development Dept. of the State / Nation as Manager or Programme Coordinator.

MSL 105 PRACTICAL

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - know about difference between tools and techniques
- CO 2 – They know their use in according to selected topic and area.
- CO 3 – Preparation of Questionnaire
- CO 4 - Preparation of Interview schedule.
- CO 5 – They better understand how to making rapport establishment and collection of data.

MSL 201 Classical Sociological Thinkers

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - These principles have been proved in the past, but in today's circumstances, studying they will give students a perspective with self- imagination.
- CO 2 - The Society is organized in every age with a new circumstance.
- CO 3 - The study of these theories suggests have never remained separate from social life, but have existed from the root.
- CO 4 - The way scholars like Marx, Weber, Durkheim interpret the transition, it gives the student a new perspective.
- CO 5 - Circumstances so that they can prove the meaning of their own participation in the creation of future society.

MSL 202 Quantitative Research Techniques in Sociology

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - Knowledge of research and process including reading, assessment and development is identified.
- CO 2 - Students understand the fundamentals of research knowledge in research methodology.
- CO 3 - Can understand current events using differences in qualitative and conformational methods.
- CO 4 - A scientific approach to viewing social events develops.
- CO 5 - Understands the difference between real Knowledge and Common sense.

MSL 203 Sociology of Development

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - The existence of any society depends on development and change. Reading the paper gives students a deep and Theoretical identification of universal facts such as change.
- CO 2 - The rationality of change and Development can be understood as the Behavioral consequences of the students.
- CO 3 - By studying the sociology of development, understanding the plan of the past and the future strategy can be formulated with the changing nature of society.
- CO 4 - Sociology of development can provide a new perspective in understanding Indian Society.
- CO 5 - The difference between the theory and behavioral results of its study can be understood

MSL 204 Rural Sociology

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - They understand various aspects of social life and social problems, concerning rural life and rural society to a great extent.
- CO 2 - India is the country having numerous rural areas. This will open a plenty of career paths for the candidates interested in this field.

- CO 3 - It is to provide a holistic perspective of schemes/programmes of central govt. in general and state govt. in particular and it is to develop expertise in planning and management of rural development programmes with focus on participatory development.
- CO 4 - Students can join in Rural Development Organizations / Institutions as Social Worker, Community Mobilized.
- CO 5 - Can join in State /National Livelihoods Mission under Panchayati Raj Dept / Rural Development Dept. of the State / Nation as Manager or Programme Coordinator.

MSL 205 PRACTICAL

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - know about difference between tools and techniques
- CO 2 – They know their use in according to selected topic and area.
- CO 3 – Preparation of Interview Guide
- CO 4 - Preparation of case study guide.
- CO 5 – They better understand how to making rapport establishment and collection of data.

M.A SEMESTER III

MSL 301 Classical Sociological Theories

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - These principles have been proved in the past, but in today's circumstances, studying they will give students a perspective with self- imagination.
- CO 2 - The Society is organized in every age with a new circumstance.
- CO 3 - The study of these theories suggests have never remained separate from social life, but have existed from the root.
- CO 4 - The way scholars like Marx, Weber, Durkheim interpret the transition, it gives the student a new perspective.
- CO 5 - All these principles with their originality create a new perspective in the present circumstances so that they can prove the meaning of their own participation in the creation of future society.

MSL 302 Perspectives of Study to Indian Society-I

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - To understand the perspectives of Indian Society
- CO 2 - To understand Indian Society through the concepts, theories and frameworks that are closely associated with Indian Civilization.
- CO 3 - Understanding of the basic features of Indian Society: both past and contemporary.
- CO 4 - To acquaint the Students about some of the major social Institutions from Sociological Perspectives CO 5 - Understanding of various processes of Social Change and Problems of Indian Society.

MSL 303 Industry & Society in India

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

CO 1 - To acquaint the student with dynamics of industrial relation and consequence.

CO 2 - To understand the Problems faced by Labour in Organized and Unorganized Sector Students are able to understand work and industry.

CO 3 - Explain the main concepts and theories in sociology of work and industry the classical and contemporary theories of work towards the sociological analyses of work and industry.

CO 4 - Explain the changes and transformations in working life that industrialization gave rise to explain the main dynamics of the conflict and cooperation in working life and industrial relations.

CO 5 - Develop a theoretical, conceptual and methodological framework that will be used in the analyses of the working life and industrial relations.

MSL 304 Criminology-I

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

CO 1 - After studying this course students will be able to provide a basic definition of crime and demonstrate that ideas about what a crime is and what it is not are often contested.

CO 2 - Provide a definition of what criminology is and the subject matter it pertains to understand what criminologists do.

CO 3 - Enhance the logical and analytical skill to understand the social issues and problems as well as deep theoretical and scientific knowledge about the criminology

CO 4 - Understand the interdisciplinary nature of Criminology and the role of criminologist in the criminal justice system.

CO 5 - Describe the different schools of Criminology and critically identify the contribution of each school of thought for the growth and development of Criminology.

MSL 305 Project Report-I

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

CO 1 - know about tools and techniques for data collection from the research area.

CO 2 – They know their use in according to selected topic and area.

CO 3 – Preparation of interview schedule for intense study.

CO 4 – They better understand how to making rapport establishment.

CO 5 - They will know how to collection of data.

M.A SEMESTER IV

MSL 401 Modern Sociological Theories

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - Social events are changing rapidly. Be it the principals of sociology whether it is classical or traditional or modern students, a group is creating a subtle understanding.
- CO 2 - These principles have been proved in the past, but in today's circumstances, studying they will give students a perspective with self- imagination.
- CO 3 - The Society is organized in every age with a new circumstance. The study of these theories suggests have never remained separate from social life, but have existed from the root.
- CO 4 - The way scholars like Merton, Faucult, Habermas, Durkheim interpret the transition, it gives the student a new perspective.
- CO 5 - All these principles with their originality create a new perspective in the present circumstances so that they can prove the meaning of their own participation in the creation of future society.

MSL 402 Perspectives of Study to Indian Society-II

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 – They Will Know Major Perspectives of Indian Society.
- CO 2 - To understand Indian Society through the concepts, theories and frameworks that are closely associated with Indian Civilization.
- CO 3 - Understanding of the basic features of Indian Society: both past and contemporary.
- CO 4 - To acquaint the Students about some of the major social Institutions from Sociological Perspectives
- CO 5 - Understanding of various processes of Social Change and Problems of Indian Society.

MSL 403 Industrial Sociology

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - To acquaint the student with dynamics of industrial relation and consequences.
- CO 2 - To understand the Problems faced by Labour in Organized and Unorganized Sector Students are able to understand work and industry.
- CO 3 - Explain the classical and contemporary theories of work towards the sociological analyses of work and industry.
- CO 4 - Explain the changes and transformations in working life that industrialization gave rise to explain the main dynamics of the conflict and cooperation in working life and industrial relations.
- CO 5 - Explain the historical development of industrial relations and labor unions and develop a theoretical, conceptual and methodological framework that will be used in the analyses of the working life and industrial relations.

MSL 404 Criminology-II

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 - After studying this course students will be able to provide a basic definition of crime, demonstrate that ideas about what a crime is and what it is not are often contested, provide a definition of what criminology is and the subject matter it pertains to understand what criminologists do.
- CO 2 - Promoting a critical understanding of crime and concomitant issues by engaging in research that contributes to the body of knowledge in a vital area of concern to society.
- CO 3 - That enhances learning opportunities for students, faculty, practitioners, and citizens
- CO 4 - Students will critically apply fundamental criminology and criminal justice principles to situations related to crime, criminal justice, and related areas of practice.
- CO 5 - Students will develop and apply a personal understanding of diversity and the way it impacts work in criminology and criminal justice.

MSL 405 Project Report-II

After Completing Project report students will be able to know

- CO 1 – They will learn skill and techniques of research.
- CO 2 - They will know steps of research and process of data analysis.
- CO 3 - They will be able to better understand research process and methodology.
- CO 4 - They will learn how to rapport establishment to the respondent.
- CO 5 - How to write research project.

COURSE OUTCOME OF Ph.D. SOCIOLOGY

After successful completion of course the student will be able to -

- CO 1 – Understand Research and Research Methodology
- CO 2 – They will learn to use tools and techniques for data collection.
- CO 3 – Search literature related with topic and noteworthy contribution in the field.
- CO 4 – Preparation of tools for the topic, data analysis and interpretation of collected data.
- CO 5 – To learn skill how to write thesis.

Principal
Govt. V.Y.T. P.G. Autonomous
College, Durg (C.G.)