

DEPARTMENT OF MICROBIOLOGY
GOVT. V.Y.T. PG AUTONOMOUS COLLEGE, DURG

Awareness of Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking
Servant/ Labour colony of Sector 8, Bhilai
Extension Activity (02.07.2021)

Name of faculty involved	Mrs. Neetu Das and Ms. Anamika Sharma
Students' participation	Students of M.Sc. Sem IV and Sem II
Brief report	A group of PG Students and faculties of Dept. of Microbiology, Govt. VYT PG Autonomous College, Durg visited Servant/ Labor colony of Sector 8, Bhilai township on 02.7.2021. The main agenda of extension visit was spreading awareness against drug habits among community. The PG students prepared posters depicting types of drugs, their ill effects and measures to be taken to come out with addiction. A survey was also conducted on various types of drug habits among the family members of inhabiting community in the area. Sanitizer and Protective mask were also distributed in the neighbourhood.
Outcome	The PG students demonstrated the types of drugs and their ill effects through handmade posters The survey on drug habits and awareness about the ill effects bring about regular habit of Tobacco in the form of Pan Masala, Bidi and Cigarettes and Alcohol among the elders Most of the senior ladies' populations were working in the officer housings for house help and the male members as gardeners or running public vehicles The young and teen aged were studying in nearby schools, mostly understand the ill effects of drug but very inquisitive about the measures to come out with the habits The PG students manage the entire activity very efficiently

