V.Y.T. Autonomous College, Durg, Chhattisgarh and HSNC Board's Smt. C.H.M. College Ulhasnagar, Maharashtra. The event started with a key note of Tanvi Joshi, Asst. Prof to welcome Prof, Dinesh Nair (KET'S V G Vaze College of Arts, Science and Commerce (Autonomous), Mulund, Maharashtra) presenting his vision on various aspects of playwrights from the 16th century till the modern era. The event was attended by several online participants. The faculty members Dr. Mita Chakraborty, Dr. Qamar Talat, Dr. Somali Gupta, Dr. Suchitra Gupta, Dr. Meena Maan, Dr. Tarlochan Kaur Sandhu, Dr. Mercy George and Dr. Monika Sharma of Govt. V.Y.T. Autonomous College, Durg, Chhattisgarh (Dept. of English) participated rhapsodically in the event.

The purpose was to organize this Drama Fest to portray the society's political, social and religious situation at the time of its creation, as their creators were influenced by these factors. Keeping this in mind, 'Pod-Past', a podcast was put together for the literary enthusiasts consisting of a mélange of novelists, poets and playwrights from the 16th century till the modern era and which focuses on the authors of the contemporary era. The event was followed by the following themes - Suicide Squad, Uni Wits Vs Shakespeare, Socialist Vs Absurdist, Religion Vs Modernism.

However, students showcased their performances by playing the characters of novelists, poets and playwrights. They cultivated their experience of exploring the arts in an environment where they could develop their own agency, their own ideas and their own questions.
