Saturday Activity -Story Telling
Date: 1st September, 2023

The Department of English organized Story Telling activity for students of MA English Sem. I, Sem. III, B.A. Sem. I and B.A. Sem. III and B.A. Part III (English Literature) on September 1, 2023 in the Department. The aim behind organising the activity was to provide a platform for the English students to develop their thinking and imagination and narrative skill.

The activity started with the permission of Dr Qamar Talat , the head of department at 10:30 AM. A short welcome note was given by Dr Mercy George. The faculty and the students were quite enthusiastic to hear variety of stories. The participants one by one came and told the stories which were very captivating and the faculty appreciated the initiatives put up by them for overcoming their fears for public speaking.

13 students participated in this activity. Dr Qamar Talat , Dr Mercy George, Dr Tarlochan Kaur Sandhu and Dr Meena Maan shared some important tips with all the participants for improving their speaking skills, choosing proper stories. Dr Monika Sharma, Ms. Kusumita Sonwani provided full support to make this event successful.
