(10)

Among the manifold misfortunes that may befall humanity the loss of health is one of the severest. All the joys which life can give cannot outweigh the sufferings of the sick. Give the sick man everything and leave him his sufferings and he will feel that half the world is lost to him. Lay him on a soft silken couch; he will nevertheless groan sleepless under the pressure of the sufferings while the miserable beggar blessed with health sleeps sweetly on the hard ground. Spread his tables with dainty meats and choice drinks and he will thrust back the hand that proffers them, and envy the poor man who thoroughly enjoys his daily crust. Surround him with pomp of king, let his chair be a throne and his crutch a world-swaying sceptre : he will look with contemptuous eye on marble, on gold and on purple and would seem himself happy, could he enjoy even were it under a thatched roof, the health of the meanest of his servants.

Unit-IV

Q-4. (a) Read the passage and answer the following questions :
(5)

It was part of Gandhiji's philosophy to have regard for other's faith. His outlook arose from his own principles of truth and non violence. He saw the truth behind all religious faiths. His love for humanity taught him to treat all as his brothers. This was the basis of his scholarism, which we have accepted as the creed of the Republic of India. It was his firm faith in the twin concept that made untouchability hateful to him. He cried out in great pain that if Hinduism did not give up untouchability, Hinduism had no future. We who are the inheritors of his teachings should search our hearts and see how far we have honoured Gandhiji's Philosophy in our day-to-day life.
