M.A. English Semester-I

The department of English organized Induction Programme for the students of M.A. English Sem.I on 12.01.2021. The programme was organized to acquaint the students with the syllabus, question patterns, reference books and an understanding required to become a student of literature. The programme started with the welcome speech by the head of the department Dr. Mita Chakraborty. The patron of the institution principal Dr. R.N. Singh blessed the students for their bright future and also guided them to study well and glean the maximum benefit of learning from teachers. Dr. Somali Gupta and Dr. Suchitra Gupta discussed the syllabus and the four genres of literature, the importance of studying history of English literature and the basic books that a student of English literature must read. The students were specifically asked not to refer to bazaar guides but to use original texts and study materials found on internet. Dr. Qamar Talat shared the PDF of the syllabus with the student. The students were given admission cards bearing college roll numbers. Dr. Meena Maan a faculty of the English department was also present on the occasion.
